13. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Both Representatives Philip Philbin and F. Edward Hebert were unavailable in their offices during the day due to the handling of the Selective Service Amendments bill on the floor of the House. Mr. Philbin, in all probability, will be leaving the city for the week after the close of the session this evening. Mr. Hebert, who has just returned from a week away from the city, may be available in his office during the day tomorrow.
